Lippai (3/4)

    F                                   C    C7     F
L Lippai get out of bed! M "No, I'm a sleep." L There
F                                        C       C7  F
never was such a sleepy head! M "Sleeping deep."
      F              Gmin6              C7              F
All There is a glow in the night from a great star shining bright!
      F                           C       C7       F
L See it is bright as day! M "What did you say?"

      F                           C       C7        F
L He's born in Bethleham. M "How do you know"?
      F                                      C       C7        F
L The angels, I learned the place from them. M "They told you so?"
      F              Gmin6              C7                F
All Mary, the blest mother mild, tenderly cares for her Child.
      F                            C    C7    F
L There neath the beaming star. M "Can it be far?"

      F                          C       C7 F
All No sweeter, lovelier Babe, could I   name.
F                               C   C7      F
His bed nothing but a pile of hay, O, what a shame!
F         Gmin6         C7              F
Mary, if only I might hold the dear Savior tonight
F                          C       C7       F
Pure joy I'd owe to you. "Please let me too!"
