

I'll Be Seeing You 4/4

D G D Bm Em7 A7

Intro

Dm Cathedral bells were | tolling | Eb A7 and our hearts sang | on; Dm

| Was it the spell of | Paris | Eb A7 or the April | dawn? | D

Bm6 C#7+ C#7 F#m A6
| Who knows |— if we shall | meet again?

F#m A Bm7 E7 A Em7 A7
| But | when the | morn- ing chimes ring | sweet a | gain... |

D Dmaj7 F#7 Em B7 Em B7 Em
| I'll be |— seeing you in | all the old fa- | mil- iar plac- es |

Em7 B7 Em7 A7 Dmaj7 C#m7 F#7
That this heart of mine em| braces all day thru.

Bm7 Em7
In that small café; the park across the way,

Em7 A7 A7#5 F#m7 Bm7 Em7 A7
The children's carousel, the chestnut trees, the wishing well.

Dmaj7 F#7 Em7 B7 Em7 B7
I'll be seeing you in every lovely summer's day

Em7 B7 Em7 A7
In everything that's light and gay,

F#m7 B7
I'll always think of you that way.

Em7 C#m7 F#7
I'll find you in the morning sun

Bm7 E9
And when the night is new.

Em7
I'll be looking at the moon,

Gm7 C7 Dmaj7
but I'll be seeing you.
