

I'll Be Seeing You

D G D Bm Em7 A7

Intro

Dm Cathedral bells were tolling Eb A7 and our hearts sang on; Dm

Was it the spell of Paris Eb A7 or the April dawn? D

G#m7 C#7 C#+ C#7 F#m
Who knows if we shall meet again?

A E7 A Em7 A7
But when the morning chimes ring sweet again...

Dmaj7 F# Em7 B7 Em B7
I'll be seeing you in all the old familiar places

Em7 B7 Em7 A7 Dmaj7 C#m7 F#7
That this heart of mine embraces all day thru.

Bm7 Em7
In that small café; the park across the way,

Em7 A7 A7#5 F#m7 Bm7 Em7 A7
The children's carousel, the chestnut trees, the wishing well.

Dmaj7 F#7 Em7 B7 Em7 B7
I'll be seeing you in every lovely summer's day

Em7 B7 Em7 A7
In everything that's light and gay,

F#m7 B7
I'll always think of you that way.

Em7 C#m7 F#7
I'll find you in the morning sun

Bm7 E9
And when the night is new.

Em7
I'll be looking at the moon,

Gm7 C7 Dmaj7
but I'll be seeing you.
