

Lamorna

C So now I'll sing to you, it's about a maiden fair, F
G7 I met the other evening at the corner of the square. C
She had a dark and roving eye, she was a charming rover, F
G7 And we rode all night, through the pale moonlight, away down to C
C Lamorna.

C Twas down in Albert square, I never shall forget, F
G7 Her eyes they shone like diamonds, and the evening it was wet, wet, C wet!
Her hair hung down in curls, she was a charming rover, F
G7 And we rode all night, through the pale moonlight, away down to C
C Lamorna.

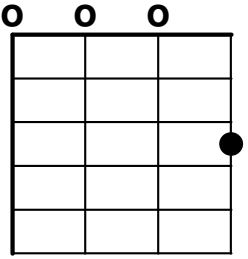

C As we got in the cab, I asked her for her name, F
G7 And when she gave it me, well mine it was the same, C
So I lifted up her veil, for her face was covered over, F
G7 To my surprise, it was my wife, I took down to Lamorna. C

C | Chorus

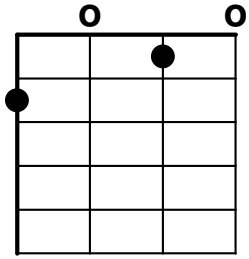

C She said, I know you now, I knew you all along, F
G7 I knew you in the dark, but I did it for a lark, C
And for that lark you'll pay, for the taking of your donah. F
G7 You'll pay the fare, for riding there, away down to Lamorna. C
