Fairyland

Far away beyond the ocean lies a fairyland,
There the waves of happiness meet dunes of golden sand.
There the flowers always bloom and beauty fills the mind,
Every sorrow of tomorrow will be left behind.

Chorus

*Oh, if I had a pair of wings my dream world I would see,
And never would I fly away so happy I would be.
A prisoner of Fate I am no matter how I try,
While captured by my destiny my dreams and hopes still fly!*

Wing, my song, across the ocean to my fairyland,
Bring my longing to my dearest, she will understand!
Tell her that she's all I have, then tell her of my love,
Let her know I miss her so, she's all I'm thinking of!
