

Take Me Back

In a far distant land by a fair and golden strand
There I met a highland laddie in the morning
And he sang me a song as he proudly marched along
O' the lands of lochs and glens and silver seas.

Chorus

*Take me back take me back where the heather hills are high
And I'll hear the mavis singing in the morning
Oh there's no place on earth like the homeland of my birth
Oh my Scotland I am coming home to you.*

Now there's wonders I have seen in the countries I have been
And there's beauty in the land where I have wandered
While I have travelled free yet my heart kept calling me
To the lands of lochs and glens and silver seas.

Chorus

I have stood on the shore where the great pacific roars
From out yonder to down under I have wandered
And the cities I have walked from Sydney to New York
But my land of lochs and glens is calling me.

Chorus

From Stranraer to Kintyre from Kilcreggan up to Skye
From Cape Ross to Inverness and broader shieling
That the world o' my home and I'm longing now to roam
To the land of lochs and glens and silver seas.

Chorus
