

The Tartan - K McKellar

A <sup>F</sup> There are hundreds of tartans so lovely to see <sup>C7</sup>
And many a famous has graced the bare knee <sup>F</sup>
And the sett that I wear is both ancient and braw <sup>Bb</sup>
It's the pride o' my heart and the dearest of aw. <sup>F</sup> <sup>C7</sup>

A <sup>F</sup> Then it's hey! for the tartan and Ho! for the tartan! <sup>C7</sup>
<sup>F</sup> The stamp O' the hielands from Skye to dundee <sup>G</sup> <sup>C7</sup>
And it's proud I am bearing the tartan I'm wearing <sup>F</sup> <sup>C7</sup>
The pride O' my clan and the tartan for me <sup>F</sup> <sup>C</sup> <sup>F</sup>

M <sup>F</sup> The Mackenzie is noted the Lindsay is grand, <sup>C7</sup>
The Gordon's familiar in many a land <sup>F</sup>
And the Cameron men have a right to be proud <sup>Bb</sup>
With the Campbells and Stewarts, MacLeod of MacLeod <sup>F</sup> <sup>C7</sup>
Chorus

W <sup>F</sup> There's the Bruce, the Buchanan, the Frazer and MacBane <sup>C7</sup>
MacDonald, MacMillan, MacPerson and MacLane <sup>F</sup>
But I can't name them all and it's no use to try <sup>Bb</sup>
So I'll give you "The Tartan from Solway to Sky" <sup>F</sup> <sup>C7</sup>
Chorus

F

C7

A Eye! The children of Scotia may roam the world o'er

F

But their thoughts eye return to the land they adore

Bb

And the skirl o' the pipes sends the heart beating high

F

C7

And the tartans of home bring a tear to the eye.

Chorus x2 - last time slow down last line watch Heather

F

C7

A Then it's hey! for the tartan and Ho! for the tartan!

F

G

C7

The stamp O' the hielands from Skye to dundee

F

C7

And it's proud I am bearing the tartan I'm wearing

F

C

F

The pride O' my clan and the tartan for me

F

C7

Bb

G

C

