

There'll Always be an England

A7 Dm Bb Gm C

Intro

F C F
I give you a toast, ladies and gentlemen,

E A E9sus4 A
I give you a toast, ladies and gentlemen.

Gm A7 Dm E A
May this fair land we love so well in dignity and freedom dwell.

Bb
Though worlds may change and go awry,

G C C7
while there is still one voice to cr.....y :

F A Bb D G G7 C
There'll always be New Zealand where Kowhai blossoms bloom,

A7 Dm G G7
Where Ratas rear their shady boughs, neath skies that know no

C C7
gloom.

F A Bb D G G7 C
There'll always be New Zealand while hills reach to the skies.

A7 Dm Bb F C F
Reveal the spirt of our men, who dared to do or die.

E A E A
The ANZAC Soul, Inspired our men of old

E A E A E A
Heros who gave our land a name, none dare defame

G C G C
Our Motherland, We'll give a helping hand

G C G C G C C7
Ready to start, to do our part, with all our heart

F A Bb D G G7 C
There'll always be New Zealand while homes and hearts are free

A7 Dm Bb F C F
As England is so dear to you, New Zealand is to me.

F A Bb D G G7 C
There'll always be an England while there's a country lane,
A7 Dm G G7 C C7
wherever there's a cottage small beside a field of grain.

F A Bb D G G7 C
There'll always be an England, while there's a busy street,
A7 Dm Bb F C F
wherever there's a turning wheel, a million marching feet.

E A E A
Red, white and blue, what does it mean to you ?

E A E A E A
surely you're proud, shout it loud, "Britons, awake !"

G C G C
The Empire, too, we can depend on you,

G C G C G C C7
freedom remains, these are the chains nothing can brea.....k.

F A Bb D G G7 C
There'll always be an England and England shall be free

A7 Dm Bb F C F
If England means so much to you, as England means to me.
